NO. 1 SONG

Songwriting team Jimmy Robbins, Marv Green and Heather Morgan teamed up for this week's CountryBreakout No. 1, "Slow Me Down," which was only boosted by production powerhouse Mark Bright, together with RCA Nashville star Sara Evans, herself.

This week, the title track off her March 11 release pulls ahead of label mate Miranda Lambert by 32 spins – a testament to Sony's ability to win with women. Not only did Evans' album debut at No. 2, but Evans will be crisscrossing the country in support of the project, including a visit to the Opry June 6 while in Nashville for CMA Fest (June 5-8).

One thing is certain, the 43-year-old mother of seven can pick a damn good song. Since 1997, the RCA Nashville star has churned out No. 1 after No. 1 at radio. So when she set her sights on releasing her second project in nearly 10 years, it was a sure bet airplay would follow.

VOICES OF SECONDARY RADIO

Arnie Andrews, WCOW/Sparta, WI

"We really try hard to connect our listeners to the artist. We love to expose listeners to new music. It's fun when they ask about a new artist they are hearing on our station.

Being on the MusicRow panel allows us to build great working relationships. It also helps put our station on the Country music industry map."

Arnie Andrews

What new artists am I excited about for 2014?

Brent Cobb, Jon Pardi, Kacey Musgraves, and Tyler Farr.
