NO. 1 SONG

Although he confesses he's not a dancer, Lee Brice has proved he is able to muster enough moves to shake himself all the way up the MusicRow CountryBreakout Chart, again. The Curb recording artist has claimed this week's No. 1 spot on the CountryBreakout Chart with "I Don't Dance."

It's taken 24 weeks for the Curb Records title track to take its place atop the chart, preluding Brice's third album release on Sept. 9. Co-written by the Curb recording artist with Dallas Davidson and Rob Hatch, the single was penned for the first dance at his wedding. At an exclusive listening party hosted by Robert K. Oermann, Brice noted, "We finished writing the song and I immediately told Rob and Dallas, 'Guys, this is the one.'"

Brice has been working out his producing chops lately, having produced various tracks on his first two Curb releases and 100 percent of I Don't Dance. He is also noted as a producer on Curb duo American Young and new coming trio, Sister C.

Brice has a heavy touring schedule through release day, mostly with Luke Bryan's That's My Kind Of Night Tour. To find a date near you, visit LeeBrice.com.

VOICES OF SECONDARY RADIO

Tom Duke - KQUS- Hot Springs, AR

Who makes the music decisions at your station?

Myself, the Music Director

What criteria and resources do you use to determine spins each week?

Position on the charts and response of listeners

What role do promoters play in your selection and exposure of new music?

I listen to what music they have that I might have missed but I make the decision on what is added.

In what areas does your station excel? (this is where you can do some bragging!)

We try to get our listeners to give their opinion to new music and they do like to give their opinion. Our listeners like to use us as a sounding board especially on shows like the CMA awards and other shows. If they hear new artists or new music, they call and I try to listen to everything they say and program accordingly.

Why is it important for you to be on MusicRow's panel?

I feel like I have a say in what is played nationally.

What new artists are you most excited about?

Leah Turner, Danielle Bradbery, DOWNDAY
