The Country Music Association held its 53rd CMA Fest June 4-7.

Each night, thousands of fans packed Nissan Stadium for a range of performances from rising stars to country legends. Caylee Hammack kicked off the festivities with a national anthem performance on Thursday. The main stage was graced throughout the weekend with performances from Bailey Zimmerman, Blake Shelton, Carly Pearce, Clay Walker, Cody Johnson, Deana Carter, Ella Langley, Gretchen Wilson, HARDY, Jason Aldean, Jo Dee Messina, Jordan Davis, Keith Urban, Lainey Wilson, Luke Bryan, Riley Green, Rhett Akins, Russell Dickerson, Sara Evans, Shaboozey, The Band Perry, The Red Clay Strays, Tim McGraw, Tucker Wetmore and Zach Top.

The platform stage showcased the future of the genre, with performances from Emily Ann Roberts, Kaitlin Butts, Kat Luna, Laci Kaye Booth, Maggie Antone, Scoot Teasley, Stephen Wilson Jr., The Jack Wharff Band, Vincent Mason, Willow Avalon and Zach John King.

In Nashville fashion, Nissan Stadium was graced with surprise guests throughout the weekend. Night one included the official reunion on Florida Georgia Line, and a surprise full length set from Jelly Roll. Special guests performing with those on the main stage included Brandon Lake, Brothers Osborne, Fetty Wap, George Birge, Hannah McFarland, Kevin Powers, Lauren Daigle, Marcus King, Michael McDonald, Molly Tuttle and Ricky Skaggs, while STELLA LEFTY joined Mason on the platform stage.

Over on Broadway, the daytime was filled with performances from multiple stages and venues. Daytime stage performances included Abbey Cone,

WSM's Bill Cody Passes

WSM announcer Bill Cody passed away on June 9. He was 67.

Cody's distinctive voice has resonated across international airwaves for more than five decades. For over 30 years, he served as host of WSM Radio's flagship morning program, Coffee, Country & Cody, and became especially renowned for his longtime role as announcer and host of the Grand Ole Opry.

Inducted into the Country Music Disc Jockey Hall of Fame in 2008, Cody has earned multiple nominations from the CMA, ACM and Billboard. In 2024, he was honored with a star on the Music City Walk of Fame

Park. He will also be posthumously inducted into the Tennessee Radio Hall of Fame later this year.

A native of Lebanon, Kentucky, Cody grew up as a preacher's son and was introduced to radio at an early age. He often accompanied his father to the local radio station to exchange tapes of Sunday worship services for broadcast. Those visits provided an early look inside the world of radio and led to opportunities to spend time at the station, where he learned more about the day-to-day work of broadcasting.

In 1971, he began his professional radio career at WLBN in his hometown of Lebanon. Six years later, he joined WVLC in Lexington, Kentucky, as an on-air personality at 17 years old. At WVLC is where his boss requested he drop his birth name, Trent Clutts, and adopted the name Bill Cody, inspired by his one of his childhood heroes, "Buffalo Bill" Cody. After two years there, he moved to WHAS in Louisville, continuing to build his career in broadcasting.

In 1985, he returned to country radio as a morning personality at WCII in Louisville before relocating to Orlando, Florida, to work with WHOO-FM. Two years later, he joined KKYX-AM in San Antonio, Texas.

In 1994, Cody moved to Nashville to join WSM Radio, beginning a chapter that would define much of his distinguished career. Joining WSM on April 25, 1994, with inaugural guest Charlie Daniels. He also eventually developed the series on the Circle Network.

Beyond radio, Cody's work has spanned television, syndication, voice-over and film. His credits include American Saturday Night: Live from the Grand Ole Opry, GAC-TV's Master Series, the television specials Tennessee's Wildside and Ray Stevens' Nashville, and appearances on The Nashville Network. He has also been heard on Bill Cody's Classic Country Weekend, Pure American Country, Nashville Record Review, Country's Most Wanted, programming for the Country Music Hall of Fame, Music City Walk of Fame, Nashville Songwriters Hall of Fame and the Ryman Auditorium, as well as Willie's Roadhouse on SiriusXM and United Airlines' in-flight country music programming.

Cody married his high school sweetheart, Rebecca. The couple has three children and resided in Cross Plains, TN.

In the days ahead, WSM will honor Cody with a special marathon of moments from Coffee, Country & Cody. Saturday's (June 13) Grand Ole Opry will be dedicated to Cody. Services have yet to be announced. MR

Florida Georgia Line Signs With The Core Entertainment & CAA

Multi-Platinum duo Florida Georgia Line have signed with The Core Entertainment for management. The duo, made up of Tyler Hubbard and Brian Kelley, will be represented by The Core Entertainment co-founders and CEOs Simon Tikhman and Kevin “Chief” Zaruk. They have also signed with CAA.

The move follows their surprise reunion at Nissan Stadium during CMA Fest on Thursday night (June 4). Hubbard and Kelley reunited onstage performing “Round Here” and their breakout hit “Cruise.”

Florida Georgia Line’s catalog of hits that includes “Round Here,” “Stay,” “This Is How We Roll,” “Dirt,” “H.O.L.Y.,” “Simple” and “Long Live.” The duo went on hiatus in 2022, with both Hubbard and Kelley releasing solo music. MR

Carly Pearce Inks With BBR Music Group/BMG Nashville

Carly Pearce has inked with BBR Music Group/BMG Nashville.

The Grammy, CMA and ACM award-winner has amassed over four billion streams to date, multiple No. 1 tracks and was inducted into the Grand Ole Opry in 2021. Her current single, “If I Don’t Leave I’m Gonna Stay” with Riley Green, is at radio, with Stoney Creek Records serving as the radio imprint. Pearce recently signed as the flagship management artist for Borchetta Entertainment Group and has been a BMG Publishing writer since 2015.

“Signing with BMG feels less like turning a new page and more like finding the best next chapter. I am incredibly grateful to be surrounded by a team that truly hears my voice and matches my ambition. The horizon looks exactly how it’s supposed to,” says Pearce.

“Carly is one of the most authentic and compelling voices in our format, and we’re beyond excited to welcome her to the recorded side of our family, having been cheering her on from our publishing side for years. Her artistry, vision and connection with fans is unparalleled, and we can’t wait to support this next creative chapter,” shares JoJamie Hahr, EVP, Recorded Music, BBR Music Group/BMG Nashville. MR

RIAA Honors Garth Brooks With Artist of a Lifetime

The RIAA recently honored Garth Brooks with the first-ever Artist of a Lifetime award. Brooks is the only artist in history to earn 10 Diamond album certifications.

“They say that gratefulness is the seed of happiness, and I am grateful every single day to have been given this shot,” Brooks shared. “A lot of people get the shot. But Bob Doyle told me early on that getting the shot wasn’t going to be the hard part. The hard part was going to be hanging on to it. I can’t thank God and the people enough for my life and the career I have been so lucky to have.”

He played a medley of his own hits and songs that have inspired his career along the way from James Taylor’s “Carolina In My Mind” and “Fire and Rain” into “The River,” Bob Seger’s “Turn The Page” leading to “The Thunder Rolls.” The showman wrapped his acoustic set with George Strait’s “Amarillo By Morning” into his own classic hit “Friends in Low Places,” which had the room on their feet and singing along. MR

Ken White Exits IBMA

Ken White has exited his position as Executive Director of The International Bluegrass Music Association.

“It has been a dream of a lifetime and a privilege beyond measure serving as the Executive Director of this organization,” White shares. “I gave my whole heart to this music that stole it sixty years ago in my home state of Kentucky. Perhaps I’m most proud of the formidable team I was fortunate to assemble – Elizabeth Dewey, Amy Combs, Maggie O’Connor, Haley Grimm and Amy Beth Hale. You are in good hands with these extraordinary folks. I was preaching the gospel of bluegrass music long before I came to Nashville, and I’ll be singing the tenor part and picking an old Martin forevermore. I continue to be a proud lifetime member of IBMA.”

Ken White

“Ken is beloved within our family, and we appreciate his dedication to the IBMA. We wish him the very best,” adds Anna Frick, Chair of the IBMA Board of Directors.

Paul Schiminger will serve as Interim Executive Director. Additional information about the executive search process will be shared in the coming weeks. MR

HEY NOW Records Adds Three

Danny Bess, Rachel Brown & Troy Scott

HEY NOW Records has added three new team members.

Danny Bess has joined as SVP Finance & Operations. Bess joins the label from his firm, DFB Consulting, where he advised several companies. He brings extensive music industry experience, having served as CFO of Warner Music Nashville for seven years and Vice President of Finance at Universal Music Group Nashville for 25 years. A graduate of Vanderbilt University with an MBA from Tulane University's A.B. Freeman School of Business, Bess began his career at RCA Records/BMG.

Rachel Brown has joined as Manager of Operations. Brown brings experience in project management, marketing and merchandising. She previously worked at Aroluxe Marketing, where she led cross-functional campaigns for a range of clients. Brown earned her MBA from Pepperdine University and developed her expertise in the fashion industry, supporting product strategy and merchandising efforts for Kendra Scott.

Troy Scott joins as Vice President of Commerce & Consumer Products. Scott brings more than 25 years of experience across record labels, radio and digital media. He began his career managing operations and marketing campaigns for BMG artists in the Washington, D.C., Philadelphia, and Boston markets before joining Universal Music Group in New York as Sales Account Director, where he led major brand partnerships for a range of artists. He later moved into radio as Sales Manager at Alpha Media in Richmond, Virginia, overseeing more than 300 local and national accounts. In 2014, Scott joined Universal Music Group Nashville as Director of Commercial Development and eventually advanced to Senior Director of E-Commerce & Retail. In that role, he led direct-to-consumer strategies and campaigns that drove significant growth in fan engagement for many of country music's top artists. MR

Triple 8 Management Elevates Allison Bostrom

Triple 8 Management has promoted Allison Bostrom to Senior Vice President, Marketing.

"Allison is thorough, creative, diligent, helpful and always in excellent spirits," shares Partner/Founder George Couri. "We're grateful for all of her hard work and dedication to not only our clients, but also our team."

"I am so appreciative to be able to wake up every day and work somewhere like Triple 8," adds Bostrom. "Over the years I have learned an unimaginable amount of things, grown tremendously as a person, and made lifelong friends. I can't wait to see what the coming years will bring!"

Originally from Corvallis, Oregon, Bostrom graduated from the University of Oregon in 2014. After college, she moved to Austin where she worked at several music venues and helped market major events, including SXSW and Austin City Limits. She joined Triple 8 in May 2016 as a Marketing Assistant and was promoted to Vice President of Marketing in 2021. MR

TKO Artist Management Elevates Cassie Petty To Vice President

Cassie Petty

Cassie Petty has been elevated to Vice President of TKO Artist Management.

“In an industry where loyalty can be fleeting, Cassie Petty has been an integral part of this operation for over 20 years. Artists trust her; she leads the team with poise and dignity, and she always gets the job done. We are lucky to have her,” shares TK Kimbrell, Founder and President of TKO Artist Management.

Petty joined TKO in 2002, working with clients including Toby Keith, Clay Walker, The Bacon Brothers, Jamey Johnson, Jackson Dean and more. A graduate of Belmont University with a degree in music business, she began her career with the artist management firm straight out of college as a receptionist, eventually becoming an executive assistant to TK Kimbrell. In 2010, Petty was elevated to general manager.

Petty is a member of The Recording Academy, Country Music Association, Academy of Country Music and SOURCE Nashville. She is an alumna of the Women’s Music Business Association and SOLID Nashville, a GRAMMY U mentor and has served on the Associate Board with the Nashville Symphony. MR

Cheyana Weekley Joins BBR Music Group/BMG Nashville

Cheyana Weekley has joined BBR Music Group/BMG Nashville as Head of Marketing. She will report to BBR Music Group/BMG Nashville’s EVP, Recorded Music, JoJamie Hahr.

Weekley will lead the label’s marketing team and support a roster of artists including Jason Aldean, Brantley Gilbert, Jelly Roll, Dustin Lynch, Parmalee, Carly Pearce, Blake Shelton and Lainey Wilson. She joins the label from MCA, where she most recently served as Director of Brand Partnerships. Prior to MCA, she spent nearly six years at 615 Leverage + Strategy and also held project management and brand strategy roles at Big Machine Label Group.

“I’ve been trying to get Cheyana on our team for years as I’ve watched her growth, leadership, and effectiveness at her previous stops. She’s the perfect addition to our family and exactly what we need as we continue to elevate our roster and our team to new levels,” says JoJamie Hahr, EVP, Recorded Music, BBR Music Group/BMG Nashville.

GRAMMY nominated songwriter and producer Christian Stalnecker has signed with Curb | Word Music Publishing.

Stalnecker began his music career performing Southern Gospel and Christian music with his family's revival band, traveling and playing shows across the country. As a teenager, he launched a pop career under the name Christian Davis, opening for major acts including Destiny's Child, Christina Aguilera and the Backstreet Boys.

After moving to Los Angeles, he signed a publishing deal with Rodney "Darkchild" Jerkins and Sony/ATV, writing and producing for artists such as El DeBarge, Lil Wayne, Dreezy and Day26. He has also worked with Boyz II Men, Warren G and others.

Later relocating to Nashville, Stalnecker became a successful country songwriter, co-writing several No. 1 hits, including "Different Man" (Kane Brown featuring Blake Shelton), "Rescue Me" (Chris Young), and the multi-platinum hit "Thank God" (Kane Brown and Katelyn Brown). The song topped the Country Airplay chart, crossed into multiple mainstream formats, and was named SESAC Nashville Song of the Year.

Known for his cross-genre songwriting and production, Stalnecker's credits also include work with NKOTB, T-Pain, Rick Ross, Wale, Ludacris, 50 Cent and Snoop Dogg. MR

Kyle Fishman Signs With Ern's Cadillac Music Via Big Loud Publishing

Kyle Fishman has signed a publishing deal with Ern's Cadillac Music via Big Loud Publishing.

"I've always felt like Big Loud was home base since moving to Nashville," Fishman shares. "It's where ERN and I first met and wrote songs together. Feels full circle to join Cadillac/Big Loud and I'm stoked to be a part of it."

Fishman's credits include Dustin Lynch's "Small Town Boy," Luke Bryan's "Down To One" and "Thank God" by Kane Brown featuring Katelyn Brown. He's also behind Zach John King's debut radio single, "Get To Drinkin'," and additional tracks with Morgan Wallen, Kenny Chesney, Teddy Swims, Blake Shelton, Florida Georgia Line, Lainey Wilson, Dan + Shay, and more. The Sacramento, California native has also earned rock and alt-leaning collaborations that include Underoath, Nickelback, Wage War, Story Of The Year, The Used and Said The Sky.

"I love Kyle. He was one of my first writes in this town..." ERN's Cadillac Music Founder and CEO ERNEST shares. "It's full circle to get to work with him in this capacity! He is so musical and one of the hardest workers I know. ALWAYS turning out songs. He has hit power, and I'm stoked he's a part of the Cadillac crew." MR

Austin Taylor Smith Inks With Peacock Publishing

Songwriter, multi-instrumentalist and producer Austin Taylor Smith has signed with Peacock Publishing.

Texas native and Belmont University graduate Smith began his career as a touring musician, performing with The Brummies and Devin Dawson. He played guitar, sang background vocals, and co-wrote four songs on Dawson’s debut album Dark Horse and The Pink Slip EP, including the 2x Platinum hit “All On Me.”

Since then, Smith has written songs recorded by a wide range of artists. His credits include Cody Johnson’s “People In The Back,” Warren Zeiders’ “West Texas Weather,” and songs released by Braxton Keith, Kat Luna, Kasey Tyndall, Kat & Alex, Brett Kissel, Julia Cole and Jordana Bryant.

“Austin and I first met as classmates at Belmont University so I have truly been a longtime fan of his! It’s such a wonderful, full-circle moment to be able to announce him as the first writer at Peacock Publishing,” Founder of Peacock Publishing Emily Peacock says. “I am thankful for his trust in me for this next chapter of his career. I truly believe the best is yet to come!” MR

Girlilla Marketing Elevates Three, Adds One

Girlilla Marketing has elevated three team members and added one.

Lindsey Feinstein and Conley Sweeney were both elevated from Account Director to Senior Account Director earlier this year. Gigi Morrison has been promoted to Creative Director.

Esther Kuperus has been added as Creative Coordinator. She is a recent graduate of Belmont University.

Singer-songwriter Blake Proehl has inked with MCA.

The news was revealed during MCA Presents: Live At The SkyDeck this past weekend during CMA Fest. MCA executives surprised Proehl with a new custom jersey celebrating his signing.

"I couldn't be more excited to join the MCA family," says Proehl. "Music has changed my life in ways I never expected, and I'm grateful to have a team that believes in me and what I'm building. This week has been really special, and I feel like I'm just getting started. I can't wait to share what's next."

After achieving his dream of playing in the NFL, a rookie-season injury ended Proehl's football career sooner than expected. During his recovery, he discovered his passion for music.

His music career gained national attention when a video of him singing to his grandmother went viral on TikTok, earning tens of millions of views and showcasing his vocal talent. The viral moment led to an appearance on American Idol and helped him build a growing fanbase drawn to both his voice and genuine personality.

He recently released his new track "She Got It." MR

Emmy Moyer Inks With SMACKSongs

Singer-songwriter Emmy Moyer has signed with SMACKSongs.

The 22 year-old was raised between Kentucky, Mississippi and Tennessee, with influences ranging from Patsy Cline and Miranda Lambert to U2 and The Killers. After catching the SMACK team's attention early, she spent more than a year as a writing intern at SMACKSongs.

Moyer is a 2025 Songwriters Hall of Fame Scholarship recipient and a Belmont University Fall Writers Showcase winner. She has also earned reposts from Eric Church and Miranda Lambert. Moyer has shared the stage with The Oak Ridge Boys, Avery Anna and Caylee Hammack, and is set to perform at Rock the South and Rock the Country this summer.

"We couldn't be more excited to welcome Emmy as a writer at Smack. From her very first day as an intern, she made herself an integral part of the culture and team. Her talent, work ethic and positive energy have left a lasting impact, and we're incredibly proud to be part of her journey," says Lee Krabel, VP Publishing, SMACKSongs. MR

Hunter Flynn Signs With WME

Hunter Flynn has signed with WME for global representation.

Hailing from Eastern Kentucky, Flynn attended Eastern Kentucky University studying biomedical sciences before a 2021 car accident led him to focus on art and music. After leaving his insurance job and moving back into his grandmother’s basement, he began drawing charcoal portraits, writing songs and performing at open mic nights across Kentucky.

Over the last two years, Flynn has played nearly 200 shows across the United States and Europe. In 2025, he was named Artist in Residence at the Kentucky Music Hall of Fame, and he recently signed with Big Machine Records/Nashville Harbor Records & Entertainment.

“Hunter is the kind of artist you feel immediately. There’s a real depth and honesty to what he creates, and audiences are connecting with it in a powerful way. Between the growth we’re seeing and the foundation he’s built on the road, he’s just getting started,” shares WME’s Lance Roberts and Geoff Turner. MR

Luke Stevens Inks With Warner Chappell Music & Cornman Music

Singer-songwriter Luke Stevens has signed a worldwide publishing deal with Warner Chappell Music (WCM) Nashville and Cornman Music.

Stevens got his start performing in the Stillwater, Oklahoma music scene. After moving to Nashville in 2021, he worked at The Listening Room while building his songwriting career and performing at respected venues like the Bluebird Cafe. Since then, he has dedicated himself fully to music. Along the way, he has collaborated with acclaimed Nashville songwriters including Mark Irwin, Adam James and Lee Thomas Miller.

“I couldn’t be more excited to have such a great team with true champions of songwriters around me at Cornman and Warner Chappell,” says Stevens. “Cornman felt like home and Chris and Nate felt like family the minute I met them. Let’s get to work!”

“Luke is a special talent,” shares Christina Wiltshire, VP, A&R, WCM Nashville. “He’s a wise, hard working, genuine, and passionate student of country music. I feel grateful to be a part of his first publishing deal because I just know he’s going to do big things in our community.”

DISCLAIMER Single Reviews: Wynonna's Comeback Single Nabs Disc Of The Day

Kenny Sharp was in the running for the DISCOVERY Award, as was folkie STELLA LEFTY. But the prize was claimed by a retro-country newcomer from Down Under, Mack Geiger.

The Disc of the Day award goes to the comeback single by the always compelling Wynonna.
